

Design Director

Company

Our client is a world famous international multidisciplinary practice and a key player in the transformation of urban space, with its headquarters in France . By expanding its activities abroad, it set its subsidiary corporations in many countries and regions, including Beijing and Shanghai in China, Vietnam, Morocco, Abu Dhabi, Doha in Quarter, India and Russia, etc.

Currently, it brings together 900 people and more than 30 nationalities, professionals from diverse disciplines: architects, urban planners, designers, engineers, economists, architectural programming consultants and construction operation managers, which formed an international team with enormous strengths. It offers the expertise in all areas of urban planning and construction: multimodal hubs, railway stations, public space and public amenities, offices, hotels and housing, commercial buildings, industrial architecture and technical facilities.

Responsibilities

- Drive for continual improvement and innovation in our supplier identification and management processes.
- Strong concept design and innovative thinking capability
- Make sure all the work be finished during the concept design
- Be able to review design of all phases, and ensure the overall quality of design
- To fully control the result of perspective, model, multimedia, technical drawing, reporting materials, related work unit and professional achievements
- Pursue design quality and solve actual problem actively
- Adjust and optimize the plan according to requirement of part A
- Be able to seek project opportunities actively, cooperate with business team to sign project contract
- In charge of the performance review and training of team members
- Complete other work arranged by leadership

Requirements

- Bachelor degree or above in architectural or urban design
- Engaged in the professional design job more than 8 years, working experience in well-known design studio/firm is required
- Have strong project exploration ability to take creative design result for architectural project
- Strong capability of project management and high level of reporting
- Team management skill and team building experience is necessary, develop whole team
- Good communication skill, rich experience of cooperation with part A, ability to cooperate with other professional and related units
- Have a stable and mature career mindset
- Native French ,fluent in English

Please send your resumes to : janvier.walter@ccifc.org Or zhao.lys@ccifc.org