

Project Engineer

Company

Headquartered in France, with 3000 employees around the world, our client company provides innovative equipment and turn-key solutions such as: full breweries and brewhouses (by their world famous Belgium subsidiary), high performance wine making plants, beverage production lines, all types of dairy facilities, cosmetic skids, complete cGMP process solutions for pharmaceutical applications, non Newtonian fluid systems for automotive, paper mill, glass and other industries. Our client company is also a major world player in executing and maintaining industrial pipe and mechanical work for the chemical, oil and gas, power and nuclear power industries.

Their Shanghai subsidiary is a Wholly Owned Foreign Enterprise, and our present activity growth requires to strengthen our sales team with a: Senior Sales Manager Beverages - Ingredients - Cosmetics

Responsibility

- The mission will cover the full range of detailed engineering and project management during the whole project cycle
- Provide technical support to our customers
- Assist in any other technical issues

Requirement

- Bachelor Degree in Engineering or related fields
- At least 3 years experience in project management (ideally in dairy, beverage, cosmetics, or pharmaceutical industry)
- Chinese native speaker
- Fluent in English and Mandarin
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong sense of responsibility, motivated and willing to travel

Please send your resume to: sh-recruitment@ccifc.org