

CYBER SECURITY ENGINEER INTERN

Company description:

TEKID is a firm funded in 2018 based in Shanghai and specialized in Cyber Security which is part of the TL GROUP a consortium of legal-tech enterprises of 50 employees. With the development of today's digital world, new threats and risks emerge every day. Our team of specialists operate in every field from legal consulting to data recovery and investigation.

Job Overview:

We are looking for interns for our Cybersecurity department. She/he will be responsible for activities from computer forensics and investigation to information system security auditing and evaluation. The intern will have the opportunity to develop one's professional cybersecurity skills.

Build your experience in:

- Professional knowledge of computer forensics and investigation
- Skills and experiences of information system security auditing and evaluation
- Firsthand understanding of cybersecurity industry
- Cyber security incident response

Qualifications:

- Computer-related major
- Curiosity and passion on cybersecurity
- Self-motivated and work independently
- Work in English environment
- At least 3 days per week

Compensation:

8 hours/day with flexible working time. Compensation discussed upon interview.

Starting date: ASAP

Please send your CV and application letter to contact@tek-id.com