

Marketing Internship

Agora Space, a rapidly expanding coworking space in Shanghai, is looking for an English speaking paid marketing intern to join our marketing team.

Responsibilities:

- Promote and support online publications of events.
- Design and present new event campaigns.
- Responsible for the online visibility of the company.
- Market analysis: Research new platforms and collaborations to optimize delivery of content. ex. Meetup partnerships, advertise event on numerous platforms, communicate with organizers etc.
- Responsible for weekly advertisements drafts (in English) for Wechat/ Facebook etc.
- Help host events.

Requirements:

- Attention to detail.
- Strong English communication skills, both in oral and writing; native English speakers preferred, proficiency in Chinese is a plus
- Independence and strong self-learning ability;;
- Enthusiasm and empathy, needs to be a good team player;;
- Availability to attend and/or host events.
- Familiarity with social media platforms.
- Preferred full time availability.

What we offer:

- Be part of a rapidly growing international company in Shanghai.
- Be part of a marketing team that will elevate your experience in both online and offline marketing techniques.
- Learn the fundamentals and grow your marketing and sales abilities fast.
- Career acceleration plan.
- Attractive remuneration according to experience.

Interested? Send your CV to: jobs@agora--space.com