

Junior Supplier Developer

Company

Our client, as a pioneer and the Number 1 in France since 1996 in the barcode labeling sector, the company is today a major player and has been working on a long-term basis with the internationally distributed big names of the French fashion industry.

The group and its International network, owned in its own right by the parent company, provides its textile and ready-to-wear sector clients with a complete range of customized services and solutions for tagging and protection at source.

As a creator of solutions in the textile and fashion industries, the company guides their clients through to the completion of the clients' labelling, anti-theft tagging and packaging projects.

Location: Hangzhou

Responsibilities

The company is looking for junior merchandising coordinator with very good English skills and who have full experience on this position. The main missions are:

- Develop new supplier according to the new products which client requested
- Coordinate with suppliers for quotation, Factory Evaluation
- Coordinate with QC Department for quality control for new product
- Coordinate with Logistic department for Shipping time
- Coordinate with Head office in France for any issue during developing
- Follow up the relative Supplier's contract, Payment etc. issues
- Assist GM for Supplier chain management, reduce cost of company
- Other jobs which GM or Supervisors request

Profile

- University Degree or above
- Excellent Communication and Negotiation skills
- Positive, Highly working responsibility and good team work
- Mandarin native speaker
- Very good level of English. French is appreciated but not mandatory
- Experienced
- Ability to arrange the work
- Organized
- Quick reaction
- Ability to maintain the relation with the team in China and abroad

Please send your resume to: sh-recruitment@ccifc.org