

Project Manager

Company:

Created in 2001 by a Franco-Chinese team, our member company is an industrial group specialized in the OEM service in China serving different markets: aeronautics, electricity and telecom, LED lighting...

Our member company has its own production and design capabilities.

From 2007, our member company develops its own range of LED lighting modules.

Responsibility:

Location: Shenzhen, Baoan

- Main missions and results:
- Manage project team;
- Ensure the communication between the customer request and the team of the company;
- Follow P0~P4 until mass production;
- As the window of the company, make the quotation for the customer;
- Ensure the follow up and check central topics (quality, cost and delivery time);
- Develop, sourcing (identification, audit) and valid the new supplier chosen for his project;
- Support with his team the other department for the development and conception, establish regular timing for the customer;
- Develop productivity and improvement using support of internal engineering department;
- Support for sales and purchasing department;
- Establish and implement the company document and procedure (quality system);
- Ensure the reporting of his team activity to his hierarchy;
- Representing the company front of the customer (receive, accompany the customer to visit the company);
- Make the BOM and specification.

Requirements:

- French native speaker with fluent in English, Chinese is a plus;
- Major in Engineering, especially in Electronic Engineering with 3+ years working experience;

Please send your resume to: sc-hr@ccifc.org